

BOSTON

GAME MANUAL + SCORE SHEET

WHAT'S IT ALL ABOUT...

Boston is a dice game that can be played by two or more players. The objective of the game is to score as many points as possible over a set number of rounds.

To play Boston, you need three dice and a scorecard template. The game consists of 20 rounds.

At the beginning of each round, the player rolls three dice and sets aside those that score points. The remaining dice are rolled again, and again the ones that score points are set aside. This continues until all dice are either scoring or set aside.

The player who scores the highest number of points over all rounds wins the game.

Don't forget, FRANCO is the host and caretaker of this dice game, ensuring a fun and fair experience.

THE BOSTON GAME

REMEMBER...

... after all dice are set aside, the player records their points, and other players try to surpass them. Points are earned for the following combinations:

Ones - 100 points for each one

Fives - 50 points for each five

Three of a kind - sum of three dice

Two pairs - 10 points (regardless of the numbers rolled)

Three of a kind and a pair - 15 points (regardless of the numbers rolled)

Sequence (1-2-3 or 2-3-4 or 3-4-5 or 4-5-6) - 25 points

Three ones - 1000 points

Three twos - 200 points

Three threes - 300 points

Three fours - 400 points

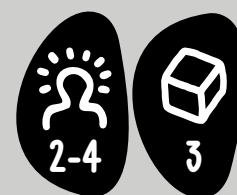

Three fives - 500 points

Three sixes - 600 points

If a player does not earn any points, they receive a penalty of 250 points. If a player surpasses the score of the previous player, they receive a bonus of 100 points.

I hope this instruction was helpful and that you are looking forward to playing BOSTON.
